
BROWNELL ATTACKS THE LAWYERS GUILD

Acts to List It as 'Subversive'
—He Outlines Wide Program
to Fight Organized Crime

BOSTON, Aug. 27 — Herbert Brownell Jr., Attorney General of the United States, took steps today to proscribe the National Lawyers Guild as a subversive organization.

Mr. Brownell charged that the guild increasingly had become the "legal mouthpiece" of the Communist party, and said that he had served notice on the organization to show cause why it should not be designated on the Attorney General's subversive list.
